

Advancing Sustainable Agricultural Value Chains through Strengthening Transdisciplinary Skills and Cooperation in East African Doctoral Education

The ADVALUE project invited participating staff and students to its closing conference, marking the culmination of the three-year (2024–2026) collaborative journey in advancing sustainable agricultural value chains through strengthening transdisciplinary skills and cooperation in East African Doctoral Education.

ADVALUE Final Conference

September 1-3, 2026

Theme: Competence-based doctoral training in agricultural value chains and rangeland management in East Africa - Collaborative curricula and stakeholder engagement.

The ADVALUE final conference was conducted in Nairobi Safari Club, Nairobi, Kenya, hosted by the University of Nairobi. It started with an internal ADVALUE workshop on 1st September, followed by the public conference on 2nd September 2026 and was ended with the 6th ADVALUE Steering Committee Meeting on 3rd September 2026.

Conclusions about enhancing doctoral education in East Africa

Figure partly created with Claude AI based on the rapports of the final conference concluding session.

More information on the ADVALUE website under <https://erasmus-advalue.org/project-activities>

ADVALUE

Erasmus+ Capacity
Building in Higher
Education

Advancing Sustainable Agricultural Value Chains through Strengthening
Transdisciplinary Skills and Cooperation in East African Doctoral Education

NEWSLETTER

ADVALUE Final Conference

Impressions

Photos: Felix Odhiambo

